

HOMework

Next class, we will study how to give instructions and directions

For your homework, please write out directions on how to get from Dong Fang College to your favorite tourist place.

It can be here in Haining, in Hangzhou, or even as far as in Beijing, Hong Kong or Shanghai.

In your directions, include which bus or train I should take, how to get to an airport and any other information you may know about how to get to the location.
